Prayer and Pledge: Lunch 1:00pm - Lunch was great!

Membership: Welcome and Membership update at 1:30 PM

- If you are not on our email list, let the secretary know. It's Gloria and Jim Briggs' 3rd anniversary! (They were married young.)

- Membership cost - Special rate on dues $10.00 - Some members paid their 2020 dues. We need to compile an updated membership list.

Treasurer's Report: Financials - Sandy Specht - P&L ended in the positive. Everyone is doing well with fundraisers. September dinner profited $442.60 and we served 49 people. The summer yard sales and concessions paid for the insurance in FULL! Great job everyone! Financial reports approved unanimously.

Secretary: Approved September minutes pending one correction (change September 12 to October 12).

Chairman's Report: Nominations for officers. Current officers were nominated and elected again for 2020. Thanks, good work: Rob Adams, Sandi Specht and Elaine Foster!

Fundraisers:

- We need to advertise the inflatable canoe in the Shopper.

- Send Rob surveyor's contact information and parcel number of the E Path lot. He will call them about surveying the property so we can get a driveway/road cut into that lot.

- Next dinner: November 22nd, Look for beef on sale or do a 2-chicken dinner. We need to buy a man-sized mop for Chip to do the community hall floor.

- Wes says that DMCO can keep the blind stitch machine. Drop its price to $299 obo. Rob has a list of what Becky Girdler is going to pick up from the clubhouse and warehouse.

- Cookbook sales: We have sold enough to pay for the printing. All future sales are profit.

Rental: Get new swamp cooler cover and straps at Home Depot.

Clubhouse: Get critter chasers for clubhouse and warehouse. Rob will get the fence paint.

Warehouse items for sale:

Inflatable canoe, new $200

5-foot oak entertainment center $40

Child's white metal bed frame $10

Professional blind stitch machine $299 obo

Folding tables

Vote to Adjourn: At 2:40 PM
